For a Community Common Prayer Service Commemorating the 130th Anniversary of the 1889 Johnstown Flood and the role St. Mark's played in the flood and its aftermath.

- A memorial to Father Alonzo Potter Diller, Rector of St. Mark's, his wife Mrs. Marion Diller, and their children who perished at St. Mark's and to all the 2209 victims of the 1889 flood.
- A service of healing prayer for the community, the nation and the world.
- Guided tours of St. Mark's will be available.
- The service is free.
- All are welcome.
