

St Mark's Episcopal Church

Community Common Prayer

Interfaith Healing Service

Sunday, October 20, 2019 at 6:30 p.m.

A service of corporate prayers and individual blessings for all who seek healing:

- For those needing extra strength to withstand the trials & tribulations of life
- For those battling acute or chronic mental or physical illnesses
- For those who have suffered debilitating losses
- For those struggling with addiction
- For those who are grieving
- For caregivers
- For all in need of prayer

October is Breast Cancer Awareness Month. We extend a special invitation to those who are battling or have battled breast cancer, or any other type of cancer, and those who love them.

Free refreshments and conversation follow the service.

The service is free.

All are welcome.

St. Mark's is a church committed to the Lord and to ministry in downtown Johnstown. We are a congregation where everyone is important, where questions can be asked, and where worship matters. We strive "to make God known."

335 Locust St, Johnstown, Pennsylvania 15901
E-mail: stmarks@atlanticbbn.net

(814) 535-6797
www.saintmarksjohnstown.com